The people I am forgiving are:

18. I now realize that what I was experiencing (my story about me victimizing myself) was a precise reflection of my ignorance of the truth. I now understand that if I were able to see the spiritual big picture, I would really see how it all fits and that everything is indeed perfect. I also understand that the more I act with integrity in this world, and with love in my heart, the more likely it is that I will be in alignment with the World of Divine Truth.
